Le Moyne College

History

Le Moyne College, located in Syracuse, N.Y., is Central New York's only Jesuit college. Situated on a picturesque 150-acre campus, Le Moyne was founded in 1946, the second youngest of the 28 Jesuit colleges and universities in the U.S and the first to open as a co-educational institution.

Enrollment

Le Moyne College has an enrollment of approximately 2,300 undergraduate students and 800 students pursuing graduate work.

Demographics

Le Moyne College students represent 15 states and seven foreign countries.

Academic Excellence

For the past 14 years, U.S. News & World Report has recognized Le Moyne's academic excellence and value by naming it one of "America's Best Colleges" among regional universities (those with a master's degree program) in the North.

Academics

Le Moyne offers more than 700 courses leading to Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degrees in 29 different majors. Le Moyne also provides courses of study leading to a master's in business administration, education or physician assistant studies. In addition, the Center for Continuing Education offers a variety of degree programs, certificate programs, and credit and non-credit courses for professional and personal enrichment.

Faculty

Le Moyne employs approximately 230 faculty. It maintains a 13:1 ratio of students to faculty, fostering personal attention to the individual student.

Syracuse, NY 2006

Mission Statement

Le Moyne College is a diverse learning community that strives for academic excellence in the Catholic and Jesuit tradition through its comprehensive programs rooted in the liberal arts and sciences. Its emphasis is on education of the whole person and on the search for meaning and value as integral parts of the intellectual life. Le Moyne College seeks to prepare its members for leadership and service in their personal and professional lives to promote a more just society.

AJCU Mission

The Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU) is a national voluntary organization whose mission is to serve its member institutions, the 28 Jesuit colleges and universities, and its associate members, the two theological centers, in the United States.

Though each institution is separately chartered and is legally autonomous under its own board of trustees, the institutions are bonded together by a common heritage, vision and purpose.

They engage in a number of collaborative projects in the United States and around the world.
